

GRAMMAR AND SENTENCE CONSTRUCTION

BASIC 3 ENGLISH, WEEK 2

TODAY'S OBJECTIVES

By the end of today's lesson, I can:

- Find the verb in a sentence
- Build a correct sentence
- Use the correct verb form
- Join two sentences using and/but/or

WARM-UP

Let's move! Act out the action word: jump, clap, sing, run.

Station 1: What Is a Verb?

A verb is a doing word.

Examples: run, dance, clap, eat,
jump, sing, play.

What is the action?

Clap once as soon as you hear the verb in each sentence

1. The boy jumps.

2. The girl dances.

3. The dog barks

4. Ade claps his hands

5. The birds sing

Let's play a train game !!!

Spotting verbs (doing words)
in the sentences

Station 2: Subject-Verb Agreement

One person / Thing — the verb wears an 's' hat.

Many people / I / You — the verb takes off the 's' hat.

This rule is for today / every day — not for yesterday. Remember: the verb changes depending on who is doing the action!

Subject-Verb Agreement Table

One person or thing:

verb + 's'

✓ Ade sings.

✓ The dog barks.

✓ She runs.

More than one / I / You:

verb without 's'

✓ They run.

✓ We sing.

✓ I play.

Game Time !!!

Subject + Verb Match

Remember: one = verb + 's', many/I/You = no 's

Station

BUILDING CORRECT SENTENCES

A complete sentence start with a capital letter, needs somebody/something + Verb and end with a full stop(.)

Example: Ade + runs = 'Ade runs.'

Let's play a game !!!

Building correct sentences.

Don't Forget a complete sentence:

start with capital letter

needs somebody/something + verb

and ends with a full stop (!).

Station 4: COMPOUND SENTENCES

We can join two sentences using joining words.
They are:

and

or

but

CONJUNCTION JOB

Conjunctions help us join sentences together!

Use and, or, but to make compound sentences!

and = joins similar ideas.
Example: I like cats and I like dogs.

or = shows a choice.
Example: Do you want rice or beans?

but = joins opposite ideas.
Example: I like cats but I don't like dogs.

Let's play a game !!!

Build two simple sentences, then use and, or, but to join them into one compound sentence!

Great job!
Today I learned: verbs, subject-verb agreement, building sentences, and joining sentences.
